HAWAII NEWSPAPERS A UNION LIST

PREPARED BY HAWAII NEWSPAPER PROJECT

SOPHIA McMILLEN: CATALOGER
NANCY MORRIS: PROJECT MANAGER
1987

INTRODUCTION

This list represents the completion of the bibliographic phase of the Hawaii Newspaper Project, a part of the United States Newspaper Program sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities. The preliminary work of identifying titles for inclusion and locating copies of them in libraries, archives or other repositories was carried out by Nancy Morris, project manager.

The list is a print-out of entries, cataloged by Sophia McMillen of the University of Hawaii at Manoa Library, into OCLC, a national shared-cataloging bibliographic data base. The bibliographic records are available to all OCLC users, but the holdings information appearing here is stored in an OCLC subfile accessible only to authorized users of the system's serials control system.

This list includes all known extant newspapers published since 1834, when Hawaii's first newspaper began publication. It lists newspapers published in a variety of languages representing Hawaii's diverse cultural heritage. Not included are titles known to have existed but not held by any known institution. Listings for these additional titles for which no copies were located may be found in Inventory of Newspapers Published in Hawaii: Preliminary List.

The present list consists of a main section, followed by six indexes. The main section lists newspapers alphabetically by title. Cross-references are made from variant or other titles by which the newspaper is known. The six indexes are: Editor/Issuing Body Index; Place of Publication Index; Intended Audience Index; Subject Index; Beginning Date Index; Language Index.

Hawaii Newspapers: A Union List is both a bibliography and a union list. Each entry contains bibliographic description of the newspaper, shows which repository (library, etc.) has the newspaper and which issues it has. Holdings information includes both hard copy (newsprint) and microfilm copies. The bibliographic information includes title, publisher, beginning and ending dates of publication, frequency, and various notes on language, editors, or relationship to former or succeeding newspaper titles.
